CONCERNING BUTLER'S CHARGES.

The Hustler wishes to disclaim any intention of reflecting upon the character or standing of Judge Ewart by the publication of the editorial from a recent issue of the Raleigh Caucasian, concerning him, and desire to say, without suggestion or request from any one, that this paper assumes no responsibility for a single statement contained in said article. It was published as a matter of news, the real purpose being to apprise him and his friends of what Butler had publicly stated concerning him, that he might have an opportunity to reply in kind. It will be remembered that this paper stood by Judge Ewart through the long and strenuous fight for confirmation as circuit judge of the United States court for the Western district of North Carolina. We did so with the full knowledge that the position would be filled by a republican and felt that Judge Ewart was the ablest man that party had to offer for the position. And, we still adhere to this opinion.

The letter addressed to the Caucasian, and appearing elsewhere in the Hustler today, tells its own story and is just what might be expected from Judge Ewart. It is now "up to" Butler to make good his charges, or apologize. Judge Ewart says he was not removed as chairman of the committee on privileges and elections by Speaker Walser during the legislature of 1895 and that the Committee on Judiciary of the United States senate never did report unanimously against his confirmation as United States judge and we believe he states the truth.

The Hustler cheerfully gives space to Judge Ewart's letter to the Caucasian and shall present to its readers that paper's retraxit. We do not think there is need for the Judge to feel annoyed about statements Marion Butler makes concerning him.

During the early part of the session of the recent legislature, Judge Ewart was referred to in the House as a near-democrat, but later on, when he lined up with the republican members in every petty political issue, democrats placed him where he rightly belonged. Democratic leaders got "onto" his curves and landed the gentleman from Henderson a solar-plexus whenever the provocation appeared to justify.

The citizens of Raleigh are engaged in a seemingly determined effort to raise $65,000 for the establishment of a Young Men's Christian Association there. The campaign opened, with enthusiasm, on Thursday evening of last week, when Judge Pritchard and other able speakers addressed about 300 representatives men seated around the "festive board" $5,000 was pledged at this meeting and the campaign for $60,000 more started in earnest. The capital city is very much in need of such an institution and her enterprising men and women will not "let up" until their fondest hopes are realized.

Of course, we think, Judge Ewart, and all other men of character and intelligence in North Carolina should join the democratic party, but maybe the Judge prefers remaining a member of Marion Butler's organization to aid in preventing such men as Butler from again ascending to power in the state. Judge Ewart had his inning when he secured the passage through the House of a resolution thanking the governor of Rhode Island for declining the tender of repudiated North Carolina bonds and denouncing characterless individuals for attempting their collection.

The Legislature failed to aid the good roads movement in a general way, but many of the counties secured authority to issue bonds for road purposes. There can be no State aid this year, but the day is not far distant when the people residing in rural communities will demand needed encouragement from their law-makers in the construction of improved public high-ways. The sentiment for better roads grows right along and in every section of the state the good work is being executed in an effectual manner. The country people mean business.

The recent Legislature did not disturb the road law that has been effective in Henderson county since 1907, except to raise the age limit from eighteen to twenty-one years. No objection to this provision was offered either in the House or Senate. Representative Ewart stated at the outset that he would introduce no road bill which contemplated the removal of Press Patton as Supervisor and kept his word. In the measure he proposed to be submitted to the people for ratification, the name of P. F. Patton appeared as supervisor. But Mr. Patton declared he would not serve under that law, if elected, and the bill failed.

One party machine is just as deserving of condemnation as another and the direct primary plan of nominating candidates for office would smash all of them. Yet we must proceed along former lines in North Carolina yet awhile. But the State-wide primary "is on the way."

GOOD MEN SLATED.

Elsewhere in this issue appears the call of the Democratic Executive Committee for a convention to be held in the court house on next Monday night (April 3, 1911) for the purpose of nominating candidates for mayor and three aldermen. We venture to express the hope that all democrats will attend this convention. Now is the opportune time to elect a mayor and board of commissioners who will keep our town abreast with the progress of the state and the South generally.

Many good men have been spoken of as probable candidates for these offices of trust and honor. Any and all of them are men whose party loyalty and town patriotism is unquestioned. We have no choice from those mentioned; all we wish to say is that we want a ticket composed of progressive but conservative democrats, because we feel that such a ticket will win, and when placed in charge of the town, our municipal affairs will be properly safeguarded. Among those mentioned for mayor are J. C. Morrow, C. E. Brooks, Dr. H. A. Childs, J. P. Brooks, and others. As aforesaid we do not desire to express a choice among these men, or even to say that we want to confine the list mentioned. What we want is a man for mayor who has the city's and party's interest at heart. Those mentioned for aldermen, among others, are M. M. Shepherd, W. H. Justus, J. O. Williams, J. Mack Rhodes, S. J. Justice, E. J. Francis, W. A. Keith, W. A. Young, J. T. Wilkins. Any and all of these men are made of the right kind of stuff to carry the party to victory and serve the city intelligently and energetically.

Let's come out and help nominate a good satisfactory ticket and then let everybody fall in line and help elect the ticket nominated. With all democrats standing together victory is ours.

Evangelist Albert Hall Writes

Leonard, Texas, Feb. 2, 1911.
Garren Medicine Co., Hendersonville, N. C.

Bentlemen: I used some of your medicine during my stay in Hendersonville while assisting in the great Catech-Hall revival. For four years I have suffered severely with nervous indigestion and constipation. Have been given up to die twice. So many times I have had to give up my preaching for weeks, even months. One time I had to give up my sermons for five months. Two months ago I began using GARREN'S Tonic and pills. I am bothered no more, with indigestion or constipation, my nerves are good. I eat three square meals a day and weigh more than I have weighed in 11 years. I shall try to induce our drug stores here in Texas to use your remedy.

Yours under obligations,
ALBERT A. HALL.
